

Radiant Darkness

(Text vom Ex-Gitarristen)

Strange sounds in my head
Loud colours distort my world
My ears receive just noise
And my sense of touch is out of control

I walk the streets in fear
Noone's around me just I am here
The bird's-prey sounds
And turns my world into another place

The radiant stars burn my eyes

I know they haunt me
I know they will get me

I hide myself behind crimson walls
Lay my hands in the soil
I feel a shock - then darkness
It surrounds me, embraces me

The ebony stars crush my eyes

I know they had me
